

If Kids Ruled the World

written by Linda Bailey

I have always liked keeping unusual pets:

Before that I had a salamander named Gollum.

And later I had a hedgehog.
We called her Kitty.

I always wanted a sea serpent for a pet.
I would name mine Stanley.

If you ruled the world, where would you live? A castle? A moon base?
If you lived up a tree, what would your tree house look like?
Draw your tree house in the branches above!

If kids ruled the world,
and birthday cake was good for you,
and every day was your birthday...

...what kind of cake would you serve for breakfast, lunch, and dinner?
